

Baseballs contain cork (from trees), wool (from sheep), cotton (from cotton plants) and leather (from cowhide).

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Did you know that without agriculture,
baseball is impossible to play?

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Scented bath soaps and shampoos can get their good smell from flowers.
Flowers are a product of agriculture.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Farmers grow food that all people eat.
Corn flakes come from corn. Many other cereals are made from rice, wheat, & oats.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Toothpaste gets its flavors from herbs (like mint), spices (like cinnamon), or fruit (like orange, lemon, or apricot).

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Crayons are made from soybean oil.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Some fishermen claim that sweet corn makes great bait for fishing.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Footballs are not made of pigskin, but many of the materials they contain are products of agriculture.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Cotton is used to make shirts, jeans, socks, underwear and shoelaces!

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Corn and soybeans are used in the manufacturing of motor fuels and oils.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Mac the Moose is here to tell you about all the amazing products that come from agriculture.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Farmers grow the grains that you find in bread. They also grow apples, peaches, strawberries, tomatoes, carrots and more!

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

Some of the ingredients in medicine come from agricultural crops.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy

The paint on your toys is made, in part,
from corn and soy crops.

MID AMERICA CROPLIFE ASSOCIATION

Agriculture
Academy